Louise Banfield -President's Message
"Our 65th Season"

Welcome to SLT's 2011-2012 "65th" season. We've been providing fun, affordable entertainment for 65 years now. We are accessible. This summer we painted the auditorium and renovated the public washrooms downstairs. We now have a newsletter going out by e-mail on a regular basis. Make sure we have your e-mail so that we can send you a copy. Once again we are presenting five great shows for you.

Starting the season is the Andrew Bergman play, "Social Security". We welcome back director, Nancy Gibbs. You will laugh out loud as a married couple's domestic tranquility is shattered by the arrival of their family.

Enjoy the well known Christmas play, "A Christmas Carol" as our second show. Relive this much loved classic again as you watch Scrooge interact with four ghosts and reconnect with his nephew Fred, his workers and Tiny Tim.

In February, we will present the well known story, "Little Women" directed by Melissa Collver. Come and meet Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy again. We will watch as love helps this family through good and bad times.

In April, Randy and Kelly McGivern direct the comedy, "Cemetery Club". Enjoy this funny, sweet tempered, moving story. Four widows find their way while dealing with grief.

Our June show will be the comedy, "Real Estate". It will be directed by Jan Rainey. Be prepared to laugh as Joel tries to sell his house quickly.

Little Theatre is a volunteer organization and we need the support of volunteers like you to keep presenting wonderful shows every year. Please buy a membership, or make a donation and volunteer to help. We desperately need your help to raise the funds to finish paying for all of our renovations. Speak to any executive members if you are interested in any way or come see us at our booth at the Friendship Festival or at the Norfolk County Fair. You can also call us at 519 426-5042.

Again, we welcome you to our 65th season. We hope you will 'come out and play' with us.

Simcoe Little Theatre's Vision Statement
